
DR. KARL A. DAVIDSON

PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY

Educator • Minister • Veteran • Author • Publisher

Founder & Chief Executive Officer
Apostolic Faith Publishing, LLC

Dean
J. D. Williams, Sr. Bible Institute

EdD | MBA | BS | DD (Hon.)

“Equipping leaders. Strengthening institutions. Preserving Apostolic truth. Advancing Christian education.”

A life of faith, service, scholarship, leadership, and Kingdom impact.

A Life of Faith, Service & Leadership

Professional Biography of Dr. Karl A. Davidson

Dr. Karl A. Davidson possesses a profound love for the Word of God, Christian ministry, leadership development, and the preparation of men and women for effective service in the Kingdom of God. His life of faith and Christian service began in 1978 in Kingston, Jamaica, establishing a spiritual foundation that has continued to shape his ministry, educational pursuits, military service, and professional leadership.

After migrating to the United States, Dr. Davidson embarked upon a distinguished career in the United States Army. He served during Operation Desert Storm in Saudi Arabia and later participated in Operation Iraqi Freedom. Following years of honorable military service, he retired from the United States Army, bringing with him extensive experience in leadership, logistics, organizational management, strategic operations, personnel development, and the ability to perform effectively under demanding and high-pressure conditions.

Dr. Davidson has demonstrated a lifelong commitment to education, professional development, and academic excellence. He earned a Bachelor of Science in Operations Management, a Master of Business Administration (MBA), and a Doctor of Education (EdD) in Curriculum and Instruction. He has also been awarded an honorary Doctor of Divinity (DD) in recognition of his contributions to ministry and Christian service. His unique combination of theological commitment, educational expertise, business leadership, military experience, and administrative competence enables him to serve effectively across ministry, academic, publishing, and organizational settings.

Dr. Davidson serves as Dean of the J. D. Williams, Sr. Bible Institute in Charlotte, North Carolina. Following an extended period during which the institution was inactive, Bishop Dr. Lang Priester, President of the J. D. Williams, Sr. Bible Institute, called upon Dr. Davidson's expertise, leadership experience, and administrative capabilities to assist in the reestablishment and revitalization of the school.

Dr. Davidson played an instrumental role in rebuilding the institution's organizational and administrative infrastructure. His leadership contributions have included assisting with the development of the school's operational structure, administrative processes, institutional documentation, accreditation initiatives, solicitation licensing, 501(c)(3) filing processes, website development, academic planning, and day-to-day organizational operations. He took a leading role in helping transform the institution into a more structured, sustainable, and forward-looking Bible institute committed to preparing students for Christian ministry, biblical scholarship, church leadership, and Kingdom service.

Education, Ministry, Publishing & Institutional Impact

A multidimensional vocation dedicated to service, scholarship, stewardship, and leadership.

Appointed to serve in this leadership capacity by Bishop Dr. Lang Priestler, Dr. Davidson has approached his responsibilities with faith, personal conviction, integrity, professionalism, and a deep commitment to institutional excellence. As a retired military veteran, educator, administrator, minister, and organizational leader, he continues to contribute his experience toward strengthening the Bible institute and positioning it for continued growth and future advancement.

In addition to his educational and ministry leadership, Dr. Davidson is the Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Apostolic Faith Publishing, LLC, a publishing enterprise committed to preserving, developing, and distributing biblically grounded and Apostolic-centered literature. Through Apostolic Faith Publishing, he seeks to produce books, devotionals, theological resources, church manuals, leadership materials, Christian education curricula, ministry training resources, and other publications designed to strengthen believers, equip ministry leaders, preserve Apostolic truth, and leave a lasting literary legacy for future generations.

Dr. Davidson brings an unwavering commitment to organizational leadership, Christian education, curriculum development, publishing, ministry training, and institutional advancement. Throughout his military, academic, professional, and ministerial journey, he has consistently demonstrated the ability to perform under pressure, pursue excellence, achieve challenging goals, facilitate organizational growth, develop leaders, and maintain high standards of integrity and performance.

His ministry experience has included leadership development, Christian education, marriage seminars, organizational administration, ministerial training, curriculum development, and service in various executive and leadership capacities. These experiences continue to find greater expression through his work as Dean of the J. D. Williams, Sr. Bible Institute and as Founder and CEO of Apostolic Faith Publishing, LLC.

Deeply grounded in faith and committed to lifelong service, Dr. Karl A. Davidson stands at the intersection of ministry, education, business, publishing, military leadership, and organizational development. His life's work reflects a continuing commitment to equipping leaders, strengthening institutions, preserving Apostolic truth, advancing Christian education, and preparing present and future generations for impactful service in the Kingdom of God.

EDUCATION EdD • MBA • BS • DD (Hon.)	MINISTRY Dean & Christian Educator	PUBLISHING Founder & CEO	SERVICE Retired U.S. Army Veteran
--	--	------------------------------------	---